Admission methods for the Master's Degree with entry requirements and academic knowledge assessment in:

Economics

Faculty of Economics

Class: LM-56; code to be entered on Infostud: 33440

1. Stages of the procedure

For admission to the master's degree, it is required to:

- a. Pay the €10,00 fee in compliance with the methods and deadlines indicated in section 3.
- b. Wait for the outcome of the entry requirements assessment. If the requirements are not met, it is possible to acquire the missing credits by passing single exams. The methods and costs are set out in "Single Courses" of the Student Regulations Go to the Student Regulations
- c. Carry out the academic knowledge assessment in the modalities indicated in section 4.
- d. Proceed to enrolment by paying the master's degree enrolment tuition fees in accordance with the procedures and deadlines indicated in section 5. Enrolment can only take place when the Student Affairs Office sends an email notification of the successful outcome of entry requirements and academic knowledge assessment.

For candidates coming from other Italian universities

After paying the €10 fee, candidates from other Italian universities must send to the student affairs office (using the relevant form accessible at the link <https://forms.gle/7UKvWeFHeJcvx4R99>):

- self-certification of the educational qualification obtained with indication of the graduation grade and degree Class;
- self-certification of the exams taken, the number of ECTS for each exam, the Scientific-Disciplinary Sectors corresponding to the subjects;
- a copy of the payment of the € 10.00 fee.

Candidates who have not graduated yet

Candidates who have not yet graduated (from Sapienza University of Rome or other universities) may also apply for entry requirements assessment, without prejudice to the obligation to graduate by January 24, 2026 (for those who have not yet graduated from Sapienza University of Rome) and by December 20, 2025 (for those who have not yet graduated from other Italian and international universities).

Requirements will be assessed only after the degree has been obtained.

For this purpose, candidates from other universities must submit the self-certifications referred to in the previous paragraph, including their final grade and degree class.

For candidates coming from foreign countries and/or in possession of a qualification obtained in a non-Italian education system

Procedures for candidates coming from foreign countries are indicated in section 6.

The outcome of the entry requirements assessment will be communicated to the institutional mailbox (if activated) or to the personal email address declared on Infostud.

4. Academic knowledge assessment

Candidates who meet the above requirements, in order to enrol in the degree programme, must also undergo a test aimed at assessing their academic knowledge.

Those who have obtained a Bachelor's degree in classes 17 and 28 (ex Ministerial Decree 509/99) and L-18 and L-33 (ex Ministerial Decree 270/04) are exempt from taking the academic knowledge assessment test.

Candidates with a degree in other classes who have obtained a mark no lower than 90/110 are also exempt from undergoing the academic knowledge assessment test.

For all the others, the Degree Programme Board provides for assessment through an individual interview or group test or assessment of their university career, with particular regard to the exams of the core and foundation Scientific-Disciplinary Sectors.

The assessment of the students' academic knowledge will also concern their English language proficiency at a minimum level of B2 (this assessment is not necessary in the case of those who hold a three-year degree entirely delivered in English language)

6. Candidates with an educational qualification obtained in a non-Italian education system

Procedures differ according to nationality and country of residence.

For those with citizenship in non-EU countries, residing abroad and applying for a study visa, and for those from China and participating in the Marco Polo project who choose the English language curriculum

In these cases, it is necessary to have the mandatory pre-acceptance letter.

The procedures to be followed are indicated in section 7 of the International Student Office page

Read section 7

For those with non-EU citizenship, permanently residing abroad, who apply for a visa for study purposes that choose the Italian language curriculum they are not obliged to get the pre-acceptance letter but must pass the Italian language proficiency test (level B2), or must have an Italian language certificate of at least level B2, issued by recognised organisations (<https://www.esteri.it/it/diplomazia-culturale-e-diplomazia-scientifica/cultura/promozionelinguaitaliana/certificazioni-linguistiche>) as indicated in the Ministry of University and Research Circular.

For information about the Italian language knowledge test go to the dedicated page:
