1. Stages of the procedure

To be admitted to the programme, you must:

- a. Pay the fee of €10.00 in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 3.
- b. Wait for the outcome of the eligibility check. If you do not meet the entry requirements, you may acquire the missing credits by passing single examinations.
The procedures and costs are set out in the section 'Single Examinations' of the Regulations for Attendance at Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes and for Student Fees
Go to the regulations
- c. Carry out the personal skills assessment in accordance with the procedures set out in point 4.
- d. Proceed with enrolment by paying the course enrolment fees in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 5.
Enrolment can only take place once the Student Affairs Office has sent an email confirming the successful outcome of the eligibility and personal knowledge checks.

For students coming from other Italian universities

Students coming from other Italian universities must, after paying €10.00, submit a self-declaration stating the exams they have taken, the scientific-disciplinary sectors corresponding to the courses, and the relevant syllabuses, using the form "Dichiarazione laurea ed esami per verifica dei requisiti" available on the University website, on the student forms page <https://www.uniroma1.it/en/pagina/student-forms>

The submission can be made from the personal email address provided on Infostud at the time of registration, or from a certified email (PEC) address.

- If you are using your personal email account, the address to enter as the recipient is that of your Student Affairs Office or the address specified in the course requirements, available in the Degree Programmes catalogue on the page for each course, under the 'Enrolment' section. Before submitting your application, you must check that you have uploaded your identity document to Infostud, under 'Profile > Personal documents';
- If you are using a PEC email address, the address to enter as the recipient is protocollosapienza@cert.uniroma1.it

For students who have not yet obtained their degree

Where the course regulations so provide, students who have not yet obtained their degree (at Sapienza or at other universities) may also apply for verification of their eligibility, subject to the requirement to obtain it by 23 January 2027 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree at Sapienza) and by 19 December 2026 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree from other Italian or international universities).

For students from abroad and/or holding a qualification obtained within a foreign education system

The procedures for students from abroad are set out in point 6.

2. Admission requirements

Admission to the Master's Degree programme in 'Cultural Heritage in the Near and Middle East, and in Africa' requires a three-year degree or university diploma, or an equivalent qualification obtained abroad that is deemed suitable.

Admission to the degree programme requires proof of English language proficiency at B2 level. In the absence of a certificate, language proficiency will be assessed by the Admissions Committee.

There are no specific OFAs. Instead, the degree programme's Quality Assurance Management Group monitors the academic backgrounds of both current and incoming students in order to identify any issues and define targeted measures to facilitate the integration of students from different first-cycle degree programmes and from different Italian or foreign universities.

3. Verification of eligibility

Eligibility checks must be requested by paying a €10.00 fee from 2 July 2026 and by one of the following dates, as chosen:

- 15 September 2026 (the only applicable date for applicants from non-EU countries requiring a student visa)
- 15 October 2026
- 17 November 2026
- 17 December 2026
- 14 January 2027 (date reserved for students who have already graduated from Sapienza or are about to graduate).

The payment is generated via the Infostud system.

The payment is made online via PagoPA (direct payment).

The code to be entered into the system is 33541.

Read the instructions

The result of the eligibility check will be sent to your institutional email account (if active) or to the personal email address provided on Infostud.

4. Assessment of personal knowledge

Admission will be based on an assessment of academic requirements and the applicant's university record, and, where deemed necessary, on an interview designed to assess the applicant's individual aptitude.

The Master's degree programme in 'Cultural Heritage in the Near and Middle East, and in Africa' is taught in English. Admission to the programme requires proof of English language proficiency at B2 level. In the absence of a certificate, the language level will be assessed by the Admissions Committee.

Students may follow different pathways within the Master's degree programme depending on the academic requirements met and/or the outcome of the assessment of their personal knowledge, but these pathways will in any case lead to the award of the Master's degree comprising 120 CFU, without any additional coursework.

The procedures for assessing the adequacy of personal knowledge, which are only available to students who meet the academic requirements, are set out in the Academic Regulations, available on the programme's website.
