1. Stages of the procedure

To be admitted to the programme, you must:

- a. Pay the fee of €10.00 in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 3.
- b. Wait for the outcome of the eligibility check. If you do not meet the entry requirements, you may acquire the missing credits by passing single examinations.
The procedures and costs are set out in the section 'Single Examinations' of the Regulations for Attendance at Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes and for Student Fees
Go to the regulations
- c. Carry out the personal skills assessment in accordance with the procedures set out in point 4.
- d. Proceed with enrolment by paying the course enrolment fees in accordance with the procedures and deadlines set out in point 5.
Enrolment can only take place once the Student Affairs Office has sent an email confirming the successful outcome of the eligibility and personal knowledge checks.

For students coming from other Italian universities

Students coming from other Italian universities must, after paying €10.00, submit a self-declaration stating the exams they have taken, the scientific-disciplinary sectors corresponding to the courses, and the relevant syllabuses, using the form "Dichiarazione laurea ed esami per verifica dei requisiti" available on the University website, on the student forms page
<https://www.uniroma1.it/en/pagina/student-forms>

The submission can be made from the personal email address provided on Infostud at the time of registration, or from a certified email (PEC) address.

- If you are using your personal email account, the address to enter as the recipient is that of your Student Affairs Office or the address specified in the course requirements, available in the Degree Programmes catalogue on the page for each course, under the 'Enrolment' section. Before submitting your application, you must check that you have uploaded your identity document to Infostud, under 'Profile > Personal documents';

- If you are using a PEC email address, the address to enter as the recipient is protocollosapienza@cert.uniroma1.it

For students who have not yet obtained their degree

Where the course regulations so provide, students who have not yet obtained their degree (at Sapienza or at other universities) may also apply for verification of their eligibility, subject to the requirement to obtain it by 23 January 2027 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree at Sapienza) and by 19 December 2026 (for students who have not yet obtained their degree from other Italian or international universities).

For students from abroad and/or holding a qualification obtained within a foreign education system

The procedures for students from abroad are set out in point 6.

The result of the eligibility check will be sent to your institutional email account (if active) or to the personal email address provided on Infostud.

4. Assessment of personal knowledge

Admission to the Master's degree programme also involves an assessment of the applicant's personal knowledge.

All applicants who meet the academic requirements but whose first-cycle degree mark is below 100/110 must sit an interview to assess their personal knowledge; applicants with a foreign degree will be required to attend an interview as directed by the Enrolment Committee. The interview may be conducted via a web link.

The procedures for assessing the suitability of candidates' academic knowledge, which are open only to students who meet the academic requirements, are set out in the Academic Regulations, available on the degree programme's website.
