The Degree Programme is open to candidates with a bachelors degree or other suitable educational qualifications, as well as educational qualifications obtained abroad and eligible for admission purposes. Class L-3 of Figurative Art, Music, performing arts and fashion graduates are admitted to the degree programme.

However, as the Masters Degree Programme is an international degree programme and as this makes it difficult to limit the admission requirements to single specific degree programmes, the admission requirements below are specified, these requirements will have to be assessed case-by-case in order to be able to also verify any equivalence between subjects.

90 Credits (ECTS/CFU) in the Academic Disciplines (SSD) below:

- History SSD: M-STO/01 or M-STO/02 or M-STO/03 or M-STO/04 or M-STO/06 or SECS-P12
- Philosophical, sociological and anthropological SSD: M-DEA/01 or M-FIL/04 or M-FIL/05 or SPS/07 or SPS/08;

- INF/01

Differentiated study plans within the same academic system are provided to allow attending and carrying out the Degree programme in accordance with the skills and abilities acquired during previous degrees.

A minimum B2 English language level is required for admission.

Personal preparation

The Degree Programme educational Regulation also disciplines the methods for the verification of personal preparation, including knowledge of an EU foreign language. Before admission students may be contacted for an interview to assess their personal skills (also via Skype if necessary).
